Asha Bhosle - The Voice of a Generation

Dr. Vinod Chandrasekhar Dixit
Free-lance Journalist, Writer & Cartoonist (dixitpatrakar@yahoo.in)

Rich tributes to the legendary Asha Bhosle, an icon of Indian music, on her special day. With a career spanning over eight decades, Asha has mesmerized audiences with her versatile voice, singing over 12,000 songs in multiple languages. Her collaborations with music maestros like O.P. Nayyar and R.D. Burman have given us timeless classics. A true legend, Asha's contributions to Indian music are immeasurable, and her voice continues to inspire generations. We salute her talent, dedication, and passion for music.

Asha Bhosle, has had an incredible career spanning over eight decades. Born on September 8, 1933, in Sangli, Maharashtra, Asha was destined for greatness, coming from a family of musicians. Her father, Pandit Dinanath Mangeshkar, was a renowned classical singer and stage actor. Asha's journey began at the tender age of 10, singing her first song, "Chala Ch ala Nav Bala," for the Marathi film "Majha Bal" in 1943. She made her Hindi film debut with "Saavan Aaya" from the film "Chunariya" in 1948. Initially, she struggled to find her footing, singing for sidelined roles and low-budget films. However, her perseverance paid off when she collaborated with music directors like O.P. Nayyar and R.D. Burman, producing iconic hits like "Aaiye Meherban," "Dum Maro Dum," and "Piya Tu Ab To Aaja".

Asha Bhosle is renowned for her exceptional qualities that have made her a legendary singer. Her versatility knows no bounds, having sung over 12,000 songs in 20 languages, including Hindi, Marathi, Bengali, and more. She possesses powerful vocals with a wide range and incredible control, allowing her to convey emotions effortlessly. Asha's ability to experiment and adapt to various genres, from film music to pop, ghazals, and classical, has kept her relevant across decades. Her collaborations with music maestros like O.P. Nayyar and R.D. Burman have given us timeless classics. She's also known for her resilience and perseverance in the industry, inspiring generations with her dedication and passion for music. Asha's versatility knows no bounds, having sung over 12,000 songs in 20 languages, including film music, pop, ghazals, bhajans, and traditional Indian classical music. Her collaborations with international artists and experimentation with various genres have earned her numerous accolades, including two National Film Awards, nine Filmfare Awards, and the Padma Vibhushan in 2008.

Asha Bhosle has received numerous awards and felicitations for her contributions to music. She's a recipient of two National Film Awards, nine Filmfare Awards, and the prestigious Dada Saheb Phalke Award (2000) for her lifetime achievement in Indian cinema. Asha was honored with the Padma Vibhushan (2008), India's second-highest civilian award, for her services to the arts. She's also been recognized globally, winning the Grammy nomination for Best Global Music for the album "Bhosle & Beyond" (2017). Additionally, Asha Bhosle has been conferred with honorary doctorates from several universities, acknowledging her impact on Indian music and culture.

Asha Bhosle's incredible journey and contributions to Indian music will always be remembered. Her voice, versatility, and dedication have left an indelible mark on the industry. We can learn from Asha's perseverance, passion, and willingness to experiment and adapt. Her ability to evolve with changing times while staying true to her art is a testament to her strength and talent. Asha Bhosle's legacy inspires us to pursue our passions with grit and determination, making her an eternal icon in the world of music. (B-15 Jyoti-Kalash Society, Jodhpur Tekra, Satellite, Ahmedabad - 380 015)

Controversy over two names as soon as the Ahmedabad Congress list was announced

Ahmedabad Before announcing the first list, Gujarat Congress held meetings till 2 am. In which the names of the candidates were discussed and the names of the seats were announced. The first list has been announced after discussing all the issues in the meeting with the state in-charge of Gujarat Congress B. V. Srinivas, Devendra Yadav and state president Amit Chavda along with the state executive president. After which there is a lot of anger at the local level and among the local workers regarding the candidates for many seats. Complaints have been made to state president Amit Chavda that the candidates have not been properly selected.

For the Ahmedabad Municipal Corporation elections, the Congress had decided to announce candidates only on seats where there would be no controversy. So that no controversy would arise after the announcement of the candidate's name and the Congress could contest the elections with strength. So that the first list was announced after discussing the names of the candidates on the uncontested seats. But just as the Congress suspected that controversy could arise in some places after the announcement of the list, the same thing has happened in the Ahmedabad Municipal two seats. The Congress has announced the list before the BJP, but now the local workers are opposing that candidate.

Controversy over the name of the candidate for Ramol Hathijan ward

The names of two candidates have been announced in Ramol Hathijan ward. In which Padmaben Parmar and Sheikh Ramijra Abdul Aziz have been fielded as candidates by the Congress. Out of which, a controversy has arisen over the name of Sheikh Ramijra. In the year 2024, due to internal discord in the Congress party, some Youth Congress and NSUI workers resigned. After which all of them took saffron and joined the BJP. Sheikh Ramijra also resigned from the Congress and joined the BJP. Photos of Sheikh Ramijra with Jay Shah and BJP spokesperson Jayrajsinh Parmar are also going viral.

Congress workers are asking - When did Rameez Raja return home?

Regarding this, local workers have raised questions about the choice of candidate by making the photo of Sheikh Rameez Raja with BJP leaders viral. Local Congress workers have written a letter to the city president and raised the question that when did he return home to Congress after resigning from Congress in 2024. It has been claimed that the party has given the ticket even before Rameez rejoins Congress. After 2024, Sheikh Rameez Raja has not been seen in any program of NSUI or Youth Congress. Also, if he has attended any program, local workers have also demanded that his photo and video be released. There has been a demand to declare another candidate instead of Sheikh Rameez Raja.

City Congress President Appears in Defense Role Regarding the entire controversy, Ahmedabad City President Sonalben Patel said, Rameez has been associated with NSUI-Youth Congress for a long time. Many people are doing wrong propaganda to create controversy. Since he is a young candidate, he has been given a ticket. He has worked as Vice President in NSUI before too. He was a bit inactive for business work. There is no talk of him joining Jayraj Singh. There may be photos of him meeting at some program. So there is no question of him rejoining Congress. He has worked for years and was also going to contest the welfare elections. However, now he has also started campaigning. So we will talk to the workers in the ward and bring a suitable solution. Photos of Vatwa candidate present at AAP program go viral, names of three candidates have been announced in Vatwa. In which the name of Soeba Ali Sabir Ali Rajput has created controversy.
